SUBJECT:

Will you please prepare an amendment to the 1968 salary ordinance, which would establish two new salary classifications for civilian mechanics, in the Fire Department.

The salary classifications would be as follows:

Civilian mechanic, Class A, $7,000 per year; and civilian mechanic, Class B, $6,700 per year.

These new classifications are being requested by Fire Chief, Edward C. Loraine, in order that there can be a differential between inexperienced mechanics and those who have gained experience through years of service with the department.

Yours very truly,
